Testimonials

Mar Lodge Estate - Sporting Provider

The Country Sport Scotland website has proved to be a useful tool in marketing Sporting availability on the estate to clients we would not otherwise have access to. Regular enquiries are received from the website from a diverse range of nationalities, particularly regarding late availability lets. Many of these convert into let days allowing us to fill in blank days on the sporting calendar. It is also very helpful that the website itself is bright, colourful, informative and easy to navigate by prospective clients.

Fiona McCulloch - Estate Secretary

Aberchalder Estate - Sporting Provider

As a sporting estate in the West Highlands of Scotland we are delighted to be part of a portal for the industry and services we provide.

Those who are familiar with country sports in Scotland know who to contact and where to go, but it's important that we continue to attract new people and generations for the future. The SCSTG provides user friendly information to all levels of country sports enthusiasts and allows us to further promote sporting weeks and offers direct to those who are interested.

Bill Barnett (Factor) – Aberchalder Estate

Bell Ingram Estate – Sporting Agent

'Bell Ingram Sporting Lets was launched in 2012 and as part of our business plan we recognised that working closely with the SCSTG would be of huge benefit to us. The attractive website is very user friendly, both for providers and guests and the sporting offers section has generated us a lot of business. We have advertised through the SCSTG at the CLA Game Fair and through their extensive social media, promoting more enquiries and extending our reach to more international markets. The team at SCSTG is friendly, efficient and knowledgeable and the success of the group is testament to their hard work. Overall, we receive a lot of advertising, coverage and promotion for very little investment and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend them to other agents and providers.'

Assistant Land Agent

Highland Lodges – Agent

Highland Lodges provides a range of bespoke services to guests visiting Scotland, including sporting weeks on private estates. It is important for us to have a presence in this field, and our involvement with the SCSTG provided just that. We are in contact with a number of estates who may offer us weeks or last minute offers – we are now in a position, very quickly through the website portal, to get these offers in front of the people that would be interested. The site includes a wealth of information, but most importantly, I feel it allows all those who are involved in the provision of country sports, the opportunity to work close together in providing the best opportunities to guests from experienced to novice. Increased awareness of 'how' and 'when' will hopefully bring rejuvenation to country sports.
